

Czech Management Association and its International Club would like to invite you to a conference and panel discussion

The Czech Republic as part of the global economy: Challenges ahead

The conference is organized in co-operation with the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of the Czech Republic and will be held under the auspices of minister Tomáš Petříček.

Conference Topics: The Czech Republic in a global environment, investment, entrepreneurial culture and economic efficiency, living and working conditions for foreign managers in the Czech Republic.

Date: Wednesday, April 3rd 2019
Time: 1:30 – 4:30 p.m. conference and discussion
4:30 – 6 p.m. reception
Location: Czernin palace / Černínský palác, Loretánské nám. 5, Praha - Hradčany
Conference language: English
Number of participants: 100
Participants: Foreign managers working in the Czech Republic, members of international and bi-lateral chambers of commerce, leading Czech managers, ministers and deputy ministers, embassy representatives, media

Speakers:

- Leading international managers working in the Czech Republic;
- Minister of Foreign Affairs Tomáš Petříček, Deputy Minister Martin Tlapa;
- Minister of Industry and Trade, Minister of Finance, Minister of transportation, Minister of Education, Youth and Sport;
- Director of the CzechInvest agency, representative of, the Technological agency of the Czech Republic TAČR, the Czech-Moravian Guarantee and Development Bank ČMRZB

Program:

1. Panel - 80 minutes including discussion

Topics:

- Czech Republic and global changes of the 21st century;
- international competitiveness of the Czech Republic,
- overcoming international trade barriers;
- the global investment climate and its effect on the Czech Republic;
- Brexit.

2. Panel - 80 minutes, including discussion

Topics:

- Business environment in the Czech Republic;
- challenges of innovation;
- globalization versus local economy;
- specifics of Czech society, tradition and culture in comparison with other countries;
- skills and productivity of the Czech labor market.

In case of interest in the conference please contact the project manager Oleg Schoch at oschoch@cma.cz